1	Eligibility criteria 12/05/2020	Section 4 Contest Rules	I applied last year for the YSA 2019. Unfortunately, I lost some marks in the innovative aspect. I was wondering if it would be possible to apply with the same application (i.e. highlighting and improving the application based on the feedback provided). Secondly, if it is pointless since it seems that research based on engineering and computing science are more likely to win compared to other disciplines.	The Contest Rules for SJU Prize for SESAR Young Scientist Award 2020 do not refer to any restriction, neither regarding the possibility to apply with a work already used to apply for a previous edition, nor limiting the discipline/field of application. The SJU strongly encourages every applicant, satisfying the exclusion, eligibility and selection criteria as per Section 4 of the Contest Rules, to apply for the award.
